How and when will the Bonus Units and Winning Units be given to you and your friend?

Winning Units

- If you and your friend are the winners of the draw, and you have not closed your Spaceship Accounts, you and your friend will be given Winning Units within 3 business days of the draw. We'll give them by issuing the Winning Units to your Spaceship Account and your friend's Spaceship Account respectively.
- The Winning Units will be units in the Spaceship Voyager Portfolio in which you or your friend (as the case may be) have invested. So, if you've invested in the Spaceship Origin Portfolio, we'll give you units in the Spaceship Origin Portfolio valued at $1000.
- If you have more than one Spaceship Voyager Portfolio, the Winning Units will be applied to your first opened Spaceship Voyager Portfolio.
- The number of units you and your friend receive will be determined by the unit price on the day on which the Winning Units are processed.
- If you and your friend are winners of the draw, but either of you close your Spaceship Accounts before the Winning Units are applied, then both of you will no longer be eligible to be issued the Winning Units. In these circumstances, we may determine to draw the names of two alternative winners, or offer the Referral Competition Program again at a later time.

Bonus Units

- The Bonus Units will be given to you and your friend within 3 days of meeting the Eligibility Criteria. We'll give them by issuing the Bonus Units to your Spaceship Account and your friend's Spaceship Account respectively.
- The Bonus Units will be units in the Spaceship Voyager Portfolio in which you or your friend (as the case may be) have invested. So, if you've invested in the Spaceship Origin Portfolio, we'll give you units in the Spaceship Origin Portfolio valued at $10.
- If you have more than one Spaceship Voyager Portfolio, the Bonus Units will be applied to your first opened Spaceship Voyager Portfolio.
- The number of units you and your friend receive will be determined by the unit price on the day on which the Bonus Units are processed.
